Local Historian Paul J. Zuros to Host Book Signing for "Historic Tales of the Upper Ohio Valley" at The Weirton Area Museum and Cultural Center.

Weirton, WV - The Weirton Museum is proud to announce that on Saturday, May 13th, local historian Paul J. Zuros will be hosting a book signing event for his latest book, "Historic Tales of the Upper Ohio Valley". The event will take place at the museum, located at 3149 Main St. in Weirton, and will begin with a presentation by Zuros at 11 am, followed by a book signing. The museum will be open that day from 10am – 2pm.

"Historic Tales of the Upper Ohio Valley" is a fascinating collection of stories from the region's past, chronicling the people, places, and events that have shaped the area over the years. Zuros, who has spent many years researching and writing about the history of the Upper Ohio Valley, brings his deep knowledge and passion for the subject to every page.

During the event, attendees will have the opportunity to purchase copies of the book, which will be available for sale at the museum. Zuros will be on hand to sign copies and to chat with readers about the stories in the book.

The event is open to the public and admission is free. Attendees are encouraged to arrive early to secure a seat for the presentation. For more information, please contact the Weirton Museum at 304-723-3135.
